LEADERS PLEAD WITH PEOPLE

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Copenhagen, June 2.—A semi-official communication to the German press expresses the fear that recent numerous fires in munition factories and establishments engaged in war work may be attributed in part to peace-at-any-price advocates who have taken this means of hastening an end to the war. The destruction of arm buildings and granaries is also referred to indirectly and patriotic German workmen are urged to let no considerations of comradeship stand in the way of detecting and denouncing such enemies of the fatherland.

Explains Letter to Gorky.
Berlin, June 2.—M. Ruzov, Bulgarian minister to Berlin, asserts that the letter he wrote to Maxim Gorky, which latter has been made public, was purely a personal communication expressing his personal views and did not contain a proposal for a separate peace.

Peace Fought Off Than Ever.
Copenhagen, June 2.—Private advice from Germany tell of growing dissatisfaction among the people at large with the political results of the ruthless submarine campaign and the absence of any indications that it has brought the desired peace near to hand.

During their long campaign for the unrestricted use of submarines the advocates of this measure made very definite promises of immediate results. Two or three months ago the phrase used everywhere in street and newspaper arguments in regard to the time it would take to bring England to her knees, ready to accept peace. Even the official propaganda has since declared the government bound itself to no particular time to produce results. The prediction that they would be obtained in two or three months has remained in the minds of the people.

Grumblings Increase.
Grumblings are now heard that after four months have passed England shows no signs of weakening, but on the contrary seems determined to prosecute the war more bitterly than ever.

Statements that France has been defeated and will be forced to retire from the war have been made so often that they no longer attract the slightest credence. The only of the United States into the war and the rupture of relations between Germany and the bulk of the neutral world outside Europe is now taken seriously and regarded with alarm.

Questions have been recently asked of the correspondent by Germans here not in official positions, who are disgruntled over the results of the submarine campaign up to the present time, as to what would be the effect in the United States if the submarine warfare were now abandoned. The government, however, shows no signs of weakening and is now engaged in a vigorous publicity campaign to bolster up the waning confidence at home and quiet the complaints of neutrals.

AMERICA DELAYS PEACE CLAIM.

It is a matter of knowledge to the correspondent that at least one member of the German government refused to commit himself to any definite time limit for ending Great Britain into a frame of mind to discuss peace. In the correspondent's last informal conversation with Alfred Zimmermann, head of the foreign office, a few hours before news of the rupture of relations with the United States was received in Berlin, the minister, who was on tenterhooks to know what the United States would do declared impulsively:

"If the United States will only keep hands off and let us alone, two or three months will be enough."

Then, noting the correspondent pick up his park at the foreign office use of the stock phrase of the ruthlessness advocates, he quickly amended his estimate.

"Say six months," he said, and then reading a further query in the correspondent's eyes, said:

"No Peace in Sight."

"Well, let us not fix any definite time."

Dr. Zimmermann then went on with the argument that England and the entente would quickly be made amenable to the peace idea if the United States would only refrain from breaking relations or declaring war in consequence of the proclamation of the unrestricted submarine campaign.

War Situation

General Cadorna has sent his effective military machine in motion again, his report today showing a renewal of the Italian thrust in the direction of Trieste.

The new advance was scored on a two and a half mile front south of Castagnavizza, along which the Italians pushed something like a quarter of a mile nearer their goal. The process of hemming in Bulg. on the coast to the south, an important outlying defense of Trieste, is in progress over this immensely difficult ground on the Carso plateau.

The Germans are showing a disposition to continue their attacks on the Alpine front. They announce today the capture by surprise of a French position about 1,000 yards north-north-east of Soissons. In reporting this engagement last night the Paris office declared the Germans were expelled from all but a few elements of the advanced trenches in which they had gained a foothold.

British bombs were again dropped by the ton last night upon German bases along the Belgian coast. This was the second successive night in which extensive bombing operations were carried out by aircraft against Belgium and Bruges and also Zeebrugge, one of the chief German submarine bases. An intensive and systematic destructive effort apparently is being made.

This aerial activity on the entente side in Belgium is coupled with an increasingly violent artillery battle on the Ypres district. No infantry movement aside from the British rapid in force however, have yet developed on the Belgian front.

The taking of more than 12,700 prisoners on the Franco-Belgian front during May, together with three guns, 21 machine guns and other war material, is claimed in the German official statement.

HINDENBURG TELLS
KAISER FOE FAILS

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Berlin, June 2.—The French and British offensive on the western front has come to a definite conclusion, according to a report from Field Marshal von Hindenburg to Emperor William. Official communication is made that the emperor has sent the following telegram to the emperor at St. Germain:

"See Allied Attack Failure."
According to a report from Field Marshal von Hindenburg, the great British and French spring offensive was repulsed. The emperor's reply is that the attack of the British and French armies, supported by powerful masses of artillery and technical resources of all kinds, has failed after seven weeks of hard struggle.

Kaiser congratulates Emperor.
Emperor William also has sent a telegram of congratulations to Emperor Charles on the Austrian resistance to the Italian attack on the Isonzo front, saying:

"In a tenacious struggle the Isonzo army defied the might and stubborn enemy and caused him to fail. I congratulate you and your brave troops on this great success. God will be with us further."

WILSON'S FOOD
BILL PASSES SENATE

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, June 2.—The administration food bill today was adopted by the senate by an aye and nay vote. The bill appropriates $11,100,000 for an immediate investigation of the food resources of the country and for other measures to stimulate agriculture and facilitate the distribution of farm products. A similar measure has been passed by the house, appropriating $14,700,000 for the purpose. The bill will now be sent to conference.

The senate by a vote of 41 to 18, passed Senator McFall's amendment providing that all public and unreserved lands in New Mexico, Colorado, Utah and South Dakota be opened under the 640 acres homestead act.

Dr. Zimmermann then went on with the argument that England and the entente would quickly be made amenable to the peace idea if the United States would only refrain from breaking relations or declaring war in consequence of the proclamation of the unrestricted submarine campaign.

German naval writers for some time have been preparing their readers for a possible falling off in the monthly figures of tonnage destroyed by submarines. Many of them furnish the advance explanation that this, if it happens, will be due largely to the absence of vessels to torpedo, or, in some articles, to the results of British methods. No mention of any increase in losses of submarines is made.

Police Investigate Story That
Shopman Here Campaigns
Against Registration.

TREASON WOULD BE CHARGE

The police today were given the name of a shopman who has been advising fellow workmen of the draft age not to register next Tuesday. Chief of Police McGarry this afternoon ordered an investigation of the charge and if the evidence warrants will notify Hinton C. Clabaugh, special agent of the department of justice, at Chicago.

Proved attempts to prevent registration will result in a charge of treason for which the extreme penalty is death.

J. J. McGarry, in charge of the first to report against the anti-registration suspect. A young man who worked with him told McGarry that the suspect had tried to persuade him not to enlist.

The man who is under suspicion is married and is of the draft age. He has taken out his first citizenship papers. Unless action is taken before Tuesday the list of registrations in his precinct will be gone over to learn if he has registered.

He has received instructions from the department of justice to look out for organized movements to discourage registration. Chief McGarry said: "The government has also requested that we report at once any meetings that might be held to discourage registration. I have the name of the factory hand suspected and we are investigating. He is liable to get himself and other men of the draft age into trouble."

No report of organized meetings to discourage registration have been received by the police.

TEN CENT MOVIES TO ESCAPE WAR TAXES

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, June 2.—The war tax bill, revised by the senate finance committee, today was in the hands of treasury experts who began the task of whipping the measure into legal form. One of the final steps before its presentation to the senate for consideration. This measure will be done early in the coming week.

The committee, with its work of revision almost finished, held no session today, but Chairman Simmons and Senator Penrose conferred with postoffice department officials and publishers' representatives regarding taxes on newspapers and magazines.

New automobile taxes and exemptions of moving picture theaters will be written into the bill, the committee has decided. One amendment exempting all moving picture theaters charging less than 25 cents admission from the tax of one cent on each ticket, as provided in the bill, as it passed the house. Another would levy a new federal license tax on automobiles owners ranging from $250 to $25, with reductions for cars used a year or more.

ITALIAN WAR LOAN
PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, D. C., June 2.—Italy's national loan was reported as a great success in official dispatches to the Italian mission here today, with a total of 2,612,000,000 francs of this amount 2,189,000,000 francs have been paid in cash and the balance in bonds and securities. The city of Milan alone has taken over 1,000,000 francs.

Italy in this country have subscribed to about $45,000,000 of the loan. Most of the sales have been in $100 bonds very widely distributed.

Italy has already raised four other internal loans. These with the present loan, mean that Italy has raised in the war about $200,000,000 mostly at 5 to 5 1/2 per cent.

The War Spirit

George Jones, 20 years old, of Chicago, was arrested here last night on a charge of being intoxicated. After he had been fined $5 and costs this morning by Police Magistrate Barlow, he asked to be allowed to enlist in the army.

"I've had six years in the regular army and want to go back," Jones told the magistrate. He was taken to the office of Corporal Polin, in charge of the local recruiting office, where he was told that it would be necessary for him to go to Chicago for his discharge papers before he could enlist.

Magistrate Barlow remitted the fines and costs in Jones' case to allow him to go to Chicago to enlist. Jones has been working as a tracking laborer.

Lawson Winslow, former West High school track athlete who has been attending the University of Illinois, has enlisted in the cavalry. Winslow, at last reports, was at Jefferson barracks.

Arthur George Vetter, 18 years of age, 555 Benton street, whose father and mother were both born in Germany, enlisted last night in the United States navy. He is a sheet metal worker by occupation.

Ray David Crouse of Black Rock, who enlisted in the navy in April, Thursday night, passed his medical examination in Chicago yesterday and was accepted for duty. He enlisted as a fireman, third class.

The Aurora Navy recruiting station will be open evenings until 8 or 9 o'clock. Recruiting Officer McGarry stated today, to accommodate those who want information and cannot get in during the day. Tonight he will be there until 9 o'clock.

Aurora recruits for Uncle Sam's navy who have been enlisted here and passed examinations will have some preliminary schooling before they report for duty. J. J. McGarry, local recruiting officer who has spent almost two years in the navy will hold "night school" for the boys next week when a class will be given instructions in signals, lights, etc.

Corporal Polin, in charge of the local army recruiting office, planned today to get into communication with two men who have passed the examination for infantry service and failed to report yesterday. They are Otto W. Swanson, 23 years old, of Geneva, and Percy Parker, 22 years old, of DeKalb. The latter has been employed as a clerk by the Northwestern railroad and is considered by Corporal Polin one of the best recruits secured at the local office. Both were to have been sent to Jefferson barracks, Mo. yesterday.

Two more former West High school boys enlisted to serve Uncle Sam in the navy yesterday. They were James Henry Gregory, football and track star, and Elliot McIntyre, McIntyre also graduated from Culver Military Academy and attended the University of Illinois. Gregory enlisted in Aurora as a seaman apprentice. He is 21 years old and lives at 145 Blackhawk street. McIntyre enlisted in Chicago at 619 State street with Lieutenant M. Stevens. He took his examination yesterday after enlisting and passed.

Alto turned down once in Chicago after signing up for the navy. John Dooling, Jr., was successful yesterday in a second enlistment and examination. He passed the physical examination in Chicago. He took the examination today for seaman a higher rating than ordinary seaman. A seaman is ahead ship but his duties are largely of a clerical nature.

Transmitters for military weapons are needed by the supply company of the Third regiment, Illinois National guard. Capt. W. C. Groom announced today. These of the transmitters who enlisted two weeks ago failed to pass the examination. The company will need about twenty-five drivers and Captain Groom is desirous of enlisting experienced transmitters from Aurora. Men of the draft age who have had experience driving teams of mules employed in that work will have a good opportunity to advance by enlisting in the supply company now. Enlistments will be received at the armory in Ireland avenue.

GERMAN CATHOLICS MOVE TO ARRANGE PEACE PARLEY

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Paris, June 2.—An effort on the part of German Catholics to get into communication with the French Catholics on the subject of peace is revealed in a letter from Monsignor Baudillart, rector of the Catholic institute in Paris, who writes:

"I met a number of indigent men of food speculators will be returned on charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade, arbitrary fixing and manipulation of prices."

Romanians Cheer Frenchman.

Jassy, Roumania, June 2, via London.—M. Thomas, French minister of munitions, has arrived here and received an enthusiastic reception. The town was profusely decorated with flags.

KNIFE ON CORNS
CAUSES LOCKJAW
Tells how to loosen a tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the corniness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce will cure every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit. Advertisement.

TOO BIG FOR ARMY; LABORER REJECTED

Frank Strobel, Refused in Chicago, Comes to Aurora Seeking to Enlist.

Big Men Wanted in Artillery, Yet He Is Found Too Large Even for That Work.

Some men have been unable to get into the army because they are undersized but with Frank Strobel, 31 years old, of Chicago, it is different. He is barred from military service because he is too big. He went to the office of Corporal Polin, local recruiting officer, yesterday afternoon to enlist. The recruiting officer took his height and found that he stood 6 feet and 3 inches. The maximum height for army service is 6 feet and 1 inch and Strobel was rejected.

He tried to enlist in Chicago and they told him there that I was too tall," Strobel said. "When I came to Aurora I tore off part of the heels on my shoes to make myself shorter but the recruiting officer made me strip."

Sure to Be Rejected.
Corporal Polin said that in some cases where a man is taller than the maximum height the defect is overlooked but in Strobel's case he said it would be useless to send him to Chicago as long as he has already been rejected at the central office. Strobel has a weight of 200 pounds. It was suggested when he failed to gain admittance to the army that he hunt up a Tom Jones or some other developer of heavyweight champions.

GLAXON FAMILY MORE FORTUNATE THAN MANY

MOTHER OF PASTOR RECOVERING FROM MATTOON STORM HURTS.

Dr. R. H. Claxon, pastor of the First Baptist church, has returned from Mattoon, his former home, where a cyclone one week ago today killed 57 people and did millions of dollars' damage, and has immediately taken out tornado insurance upon his possessions here.

Doctor Claxon said this morning that his aged mother, Mrs. J. W. Claxon, who was badly hurt in the storm, had suffered more from nervous shock than real physical injuries. She was badly bruised but no bones were broken, when the Claxon home was wrecked. Mrs. Edward Ordorff, Mrs. T. Rohr, sisters, and Thomas Claxon, brother of the pastor, lost practically all they possessed but, Dr. Claxon said, they were more fortunate than many of their neighbors as they were practically the only ones carrying any tornado insurance.

"Few people nowadays," said the doctor, "carry tornado insurance if they live in cities or the larger towns of this part of the country."

HEISS-MILHOAN
The friends of Herbert P. Heiss of 11th street, a member of the senior class at Northwestern college, now at the reserve officers' camp at Fort Sheridan, were surprised to note the fact that he yesterday secured a license in Chicago to marry Miss Fae L. Milhoan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Milhoan of 1243 Judson avenue, Evanston.

At the home of the young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Heiss in this city, it was stated that the family knew nothing other than that they also noted the marriage license item in a morning paper today. They said they had tried all day to get in touch with him by telephone, without success.

The story is that a year ago last October Miss Milhoan, then a senior at Northwestern, appeared wearing Heiss' Sigma Nu fraternity pin at the "engagement angle" and that while she acknowledged the existence of an engagement, Heiss denied it, declaring she was wearing the pin on a dare.

EXPECT HIGHER FLOUR
Flour prices, which have been dropping every day for more than a week at local wholesale flour warehouses, remained the same as yesterday. Flour was still quoted at $14 per barrel, wholesale, today.

Wheat went higher today which prevented the expected drop in prices. It was said by a local wholesale flour jobber this afternoon that flour prices are expected to be higher Monday owing to the rise in wheat, unless information from the mills Monday is to the contrary. The average retail price of flour today in Aurora for the 49-pound sack was $3.85.

AT FT. SHERIDAN

Former Geneva Cadet Instructor of Col. Fabyan Now Demonstrating Use of Bayonet.

With Comrade From "Princess Pat" Regiment of Canadians, Gives Valuable Instruction.

Geneva, Ill., June 2.—Samuel Allison of the Sixteenth Canadian-Scotch Highlanders, on wounded leave from the French battle front, and instructor of the military cadets in the high schools of Geneva, St. Charles and Batavia and of the war school conducted at Riverbank Villa by Col. George Fabyan, is now teaching several thousand military students at Fort Sheridan. He is giving instruction in how to fight with bayonets.

Private Allison is assisted by Elwood Smith of the famous "Brinses Pat" regiment. The two men move about warily; one who watched them work at Fort Sheridan this week, said, "Their hands held rifles. The rifles held bayonets. The men were experienced. This could be seen by the deft manner in which they parried and thrust. They are veterans of the somme. They were demonstrators of the bayonet fighting for the student officers, whose eyes widened, whose faces blanched, whose hearts sickened as they realized how important they were to repel a lunge by a veteran adversary."

"Keep after your man," Allison kept saying. "Keep after him." "Don't lose the offensive! Press him hard! Follow him up! Follow—now there. See when our blades clashed I didn't draw back, but swung the light and around, so that I could smash my opponent's jaw."

"This is only one-tenth of what you will learn over there," Allison said. "This is a war in which individuality counts. It is counting more and more. That is why the German is losing; his nerve gives away. He cannot stand the cold steel. They fight, but Prussian guard with their fight, but they are mighty few of them left now."

"Suddenly the two men dropped dropped their bayonets. 'Jiu Jitsu and Apache stuff count as much as the bayonet,' Allison said. 'The bayonet is used as much as the bayonet.' The pair clinched. Allison seized his partner by the throat and the latter, by running his arms up between the other's, broke his grip and worked his fingers to cavities behind Allison's ears.

"Just press there," explained Smith, and you'll destroy your adversary's nervous system or break his neck. Great isn't it?"

The student-soldiers agreed that it was not.

"An eye gouging function was then explained.

"All three things may seem meaningless to you," Allison announced, "but they won't once you get in a charge. You've got to use your wits and it is the old saying that the best man wins."

ST. CHARLES FIRST TO HELP MATTOON

Commercial Club Meets and Votes $100 Immediate Aid to Stricken Cyclone City.

St. Charles, Ill., June 2.—The cyclone victims of the Mattoon district last Saturday have been given $100 by the St. Charles Commercial association as St. Charles' gift to the big fund being raised.

St. Charles is the first Kane county city to respond to the appeal for help asked for by the committee in charge of affairs at Mattoon since the storm in which 57 died.

Fred A. Kinzel of Mattoon, treasurer of the relief fund, wired to the St. Charles bank announcing that financial help was needed. Conditions at Mattoon were much worse than the newspapers have depicted, he said.

Some residents learned of the appeal for help and it was suggested that the Commercial association make a contribution as coming from the city. A special meeting was called for the directors and the resolution providing for a contribution of $100 was voted immediately.

Paul Mellander, treasurer of the Commercial association, telegraphed the money yesterday afternoon.

Haines Heirs Win Again.

Complete victory for the beneficiaries under the will of the late Charles Haines, for many years president of the St. Charles school board, was scored yesterday when the report of Master-in-Chancery Frank Hamilton of Cook county was approved in every particular.

The beneficiaries are the St. Charles school district, which is to receive one-third of the residuary estate and the Mercy hospital of Chicago, to receive two-thirds.

Distant relatives of Mrs. Haines sought to invalidate the will. They set up that the designation of the chief beneficiaries was faulty in the will and that therefore the estate should go to his mother, Mrs. Harriet Haines. As she has since died, they contended it should go to them under the law.
